

STEPHEN FINKEL PHOTOGRAPHY

Kodak 35 KB28

Kodak KB28 was manufactured in 1999 in the USA. The main features on this camera are an automatic motor drive, small size and intuitive controls, big viewfinder, the camera automatically advances to the next photo, and automatic flash.

Specifications:

- Lens: 30mm, 2 element aspheric lens
- Shutter speed: fixed at 1/100 second
- Aperture: f/8.0 for flash/daylight
- Film speed: DX (ISO) 100,200 or 400 print
- Focus Range: Daylight: 4 ft (1.2m) to infinity
- Viewfinder: Reverse Galilean
- Flash unit: Built in flash every time
- Flash recycle time: 5 seconds with fresh batteries
- Power source: 2-AAA alkaline 1.5 V batteries
- Dimensions: 117 x 41 x 63mm
- Weight: 5.3 oz (150G)

